

With so much going on and how they just don't see who is really behind their removal from first world respect and then power and finally existence. When a species time comes to go, they may get help by others yet only for a moment and then it starts up again until each and every one of their DNA is removed. The Adamites were only given 6,000 years and were granted an extension, yet they refused to change their wicked evil ways. So, as of July 15th 1999 A.D. they were told by Moloch or NAN-NAR, SIN to appeal and they did and it was heard on 9-9-99, September 9th 1999 A.D. and it was denied. So now their end has come as of the year 2000 A.D. from 4000 B.C., the birth of their very first man, Adam.

Let me explain this to you all from the aliens; they said about life and death, this:

This is your true origin, it is in the etheric being of the original creator of all. You all come from there and you all were all there before you were born in flesh for the first time and you return to that first etheric being after death. Yet, at first, only the outer realm or region because you really must learn the meaning of living life as all. So you return to this etheric state after death yet at first, only the outer realm as I stated because you have to come back here for new incarnations until you really overstand the divine purpose, love. After a final or 24th cycle of incarnations, you can go back into the etheric all or into the Omni-verse to fully and finally stay there as divine.

In the flesh embodiment you are separated from one another by the skin suit or body that surrounds your divine consciousness. There is no such separation in your divine personal etheric being. There, you are directly connected to one another while remaining individuals. You see, when you all have come so far that after a final incarnation, the 24th, you no longer need to go out from the etheric. All there can obviously no longer be such separation. That means you must overcome this separation before your final death. The only way to do this is through divine love for all and each other because it bridges what separates benevolence and positive feelings reinforces it. Hate, racism, violent actions, jealousy, deception, dishonesty, infighting reinforce separation even more. This came with the Adamites. Any of you, my children, jewels of mine divine eyes who are still living in the mind of separation is not yet mature and cannot go completely back into the omni-versal etheric all. They will just keep reincarnating until they learn divine love for each other. The Adamite male has failed his species. This is why they teach original sin came into this world by Adam. And now you all act out Cain's hate and jealousy of Abel and that will transform you from good to evil and you will never be free of this cycle of life-death-life-death. It will go on and on until, like the Adamites, you fade out of existence, Nana Yaanuwn. Love one another as I loved you.

So I pray you overstand these words and know it is best to stop acting in the image and like the Adamites. Once they die they are as a spirit with no soul, trapped here. Do you wish to loose your souls and be tormented by the fallen angels as they are, by the shadow beings, the elements that torment them while alive and after death? I don't think so.

Well, as I told you many times that as of the year 2000 A.D. the extraterrestrials planned to reduce the planet Earth's population. They even erected stone monuments in Georgia. And now look at how many humans have died since the year 2000 A.D. from wars, drugs, fires, disease, viruses, old age, and suicide. Notice what the Euro-American is calling people, HERDS, old English heord. Look at it, a number of cattle or other animals just like what is found in the Sumerian Stone Tablets, they called the Adamites Lulu Amelu "big sheep, lamb, workers, herds" because they saw them as food, as I said 'Men-u'. They are on the Anakims food list. You see they use mind control to make them desire certain foods, mainly meats. The Anakim like pig meat so they entice Adamites to eat lots of bacon, you see it on food advertisements on T.V. "eat bacon" on everything, commercials, beef burgers, lots on T.V.. They also like cheese so they also push "eat pizza's" of all kinds and add lots of pepperoni slices. These are things some aliens like to eat, the taste of certain foods so they encourage things they like and people being obese as you see. No place on Earth has as many obese people as Americans. So all I told you all is now coming to pass each day.

Look at the Euro-American Amorites now. You see they always had money coming their way for doing nothing and now that the heavens, mother nature sent the COVID-19 virus and all of their easy money had to close, they are willing to open up again fast not knowing even if the vaccines will last or work. Yet without incoming money, they will take the chance even on others lives and open back up. Look at sports and schools, churches, bars, parts stores, health spas. Why? Money, without it they can't rule others and they don't know how to live poor like they made others live. Look at them, willing to take chances on others lives, airports open, trains and busses opened just to make money. It's over for their power and respect and they don't know how to live with others in peace. They make money by wars, crime, drugs, alcohol, lust yet love for them. Truth is Truth.
